- DAY 02 IN MUMBAI
MORNING; MUMBAI PRESIDENCY GOLF COURSE - GOLFING AT GOLF CLUB.
The Golf Course chosen for your golf activities in Mumbai is the Bombay presidency Golf Club. It is literally a green heaven amidst a concrete jungle. The 110-acre course was founded in 1827. This PAR 70, 18-hole course was redesigned to the international standards. Presidency's fairways are narrow and tight, but its greens are undoubtedly the best in the country, the real test at presidency, however, is the variable and shifting sea breeze, which could fox even the most experienced player. It is not a difficult course, it's not too long, not too narrow, and yet not an easy course to break par. The 5th hole is one of the most challenging on this Mumbai Course. A 480-yard, PAR 05, a dogleg to the right, with a fairway trap strategically placed to catch the long hitter trying to cut the corner.

Late afternoon Mumbai city including visit of Gateway of India. Prince of Wales Museum drive past Victoria Terminus, Mahatma Gandhi Memorial Museum.
